

An Instrument of Love

Lyrics by Joan Waldron
Music by Connie Stauffer

$\bullet = 88$
Introduction

5

1. When you are in the ser-vice of your fel-low man, you are on-ly in the ser-vice of your God.
2. Each day I'll try to love and serve my fel-low man, _____ to show my bro-ther that I care.

9

These words were spo-ken by a king named Ben-ja-min, a man who held the i - ron rod.
Talk to my ma-ker just as oft - en as I can, and make these words my dai - ly prayer.

13

Legato

17

May I lift my neigh - bor

Give to all that I find in need.

21

May I serve and la - bor, - - - and the hun - gry feed.

25

Help me to heal the hurts

of my fel - low men.

29

When oth - ers start to fall, help me to strength - en where I can. And when grief and bur - dens cause me

33

37

sor - row and fill my heart with pain, and make me wai - ver

41

be with me and help me rise a - gain just to help my neigh - bor.

Ritardando

45

May I be more like my Sa-vior. I care. I want to serve,

mp ff a tempo

49

so I ask of thee, Lord a-bove, may I be, oh, may I be,

53

an in - stru - ment of love.

56